

GLOBAL
METHODIST CHURCH
WESTERN STATES

New Faith Communities Planting Opportunity Profile

Queen Creek, Arizona

Why Live in Queen Creek, Arizona?

With a current population over 75,000, Queen Creek is one of the fastest-growing and most family-oriented communities in the Southeast Phoenix metropolitan area. Once a small town, Queen Creek has matured into a thriving suburban community known for excellent schools, safe neighborhoods, youth sports, and strong civic pride. Queen Creek is part of greater Phoenix metro area with approximately five million people.

Queen Creek offers suburban space and pace while remaining closely connected to the broader Phoenix metro, one of the strongest economic regions in the country. Residents enjoy access to professional sports, arts and entertainment, dining, and major employment centers, without the congestion or instability of urban living.

Quality of Life

300+ Days of Sunshine

Desert & Mountains Nearby

Year-Round Outdoor Activities

Major League Sports & Spring Training

Cost of Living

Housing costs above national average.

Daily cost of living slightly above national average.

Household incomes well above national average.

Low state income tax.

Queen Creek stands out within Arizona for its newer homes, well-maintained parks, and reputation as one of the state's most family-friendly communities.

Why is this an ideal location for church planting?

- ✓ Expected 25% population growth over the next five years
- ✓ Good population density
- ✓ Minimal church saturation per capita
- ✓ Leans towards traditional values
- ✓ Median age is 40
- ✓ Significant growth in new housing